PROPOSED ORDER

19 The Court, having considered the parties' stipulation to continue the trial date and this 20 court being fully advised in the premises; the court finds that failure to grant a continuance in 21 this matter would deny the defense the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation taking 22 into account the exercise of due diligence. The Court further finds the ends of justice served by 23 granting such continuance outweighs the best interest of the public and the Defendant in a 24 speedy trial. The court also finds the period of continuance shall be excluded in computing the
